Reiki Treatment

Reiki practitioners do not diagnose conditions, nor do they prescribe substances, perform medical treatment, or interfere with the treatment of a licensed medical professional. I am not a healthcare professional, therefore all Reiki sessions are not to be construed as a substitute for medical examination, diagnosis or treatment.

Effect of Reiki Treatment

Reiki always works to serve the highest good of all concerned. Based on this principle, a desired outcome may or may not result from a Reiki session. As the effects of a Reiki session is unique for each individual, the information and testimonials presented on this site are therefore a compilation of different clients' personal and unique experiences and does not represent all Reiki experiences.

Video Reiki Sessions

All online sessions are private and confidential. Sessions are held on ZOOM or WhatsApp.

Client's Role

By booking and receiving a Reiki session, clients agree to accept full responsibility that they solely are in charge of their life journey, life choices, and transformation and agree to take complete responsibility for their own health and well-being, and for the decisions that lead to necessary shifts in attitudes, nutrition and lifestyle.

Clients understand and agree that in order for healing to take place, several sessions is recommended to support the healing process. While it is possible that one Reiki session can make a difference, most long term imbalances were not created overnight and sometimes require multiple Reiki sessions in order to facilitate the healing process. Clients recognise that this process will take commitment and time.

With any feedback and suggestions that is offered or recommended, clients are fully responsible for any decisions made thereafter, and agree that anything offered by the practitioner doesn't come with any guarantees for the effectiveness or success. Emily Reiki is not liable for the results of decisions made based on the provided guidance and feedback received as part of a Reiki session.
